

Update on Development of Rec Users Group
Open Spaces Committee 30 January 2018

1. The Town Council agreed the terms of reference for a Rec Users Group at its meeting on 17 October 2017.
2. The composition of the group was agreed to include
  - Representative of the each of the Cricket, Football, Youth Football and Angling Clubs
  - Representative of Ilminster Education Foundation
  - At least 3 members of the public who are not a member of one of the sports clubs who have a representative seat on the User Group.
3. Letters will be sent out at the beginning of February 2018, to the organisations included above, to explain the purpose of the Rec Users Group and asking them to notify the Town Clerk of their nominees (including contact details)
4. A poster will be designed, and a media release published to attract interested members of the public – the poster will be displayed in locations such as the Market House noticeboard, there will also be items on the Town Council website and Facebook page, the schools will be asked to include information in their newsletters.
5. The aim will be to hold the first meeting of the User Group in the middle of March 2018.
