In the absense of the ability to hold meetings or events involving members of the public during the current lockdown regulations imposed by the government as a result of the Covid pandemic. My committee has decided that we must use other more visible ways to inform the town of this year's Fairtrade Fortnight activities including press and news letters, Social Media and the Ilminster tradition of banner waving.

To that end they would like to purchase two banners showing the Fairtrade Logo to be hung in the centre of town for the duration of the FT Fortnight event and also during IMeX and other Town celebrations.over the course of the year.....
